

TONOPAH MAN HAS MINING CLAIM IN GOLDFIELD

SAMUEL FOX OWNS PROPERTY IN HEART OF SOUTHERN CITY.

The following story, taken from the Goldfield News, is of interest to the people of Tonopah, in that Samuel Fox, who owns the mining claim in question, is a resident of this city. Mr. Fox returned to Tonopah this morning after a two weeks' stay in Goldfield, and the following is a record of what has transpired during his absence:

Since the first of the year mining has been going on practically in the heart of the Goldfield business section. The scene of the activity was a lot adjoining the Goldfield Athletic club building, situated on Main near Myers, and the man behind it was Samuel Fox of Tonopah. It was assessment work on what is known as the Ramsey Extension or Idol's Eye mining claim that Fox performed, and this morning he filed with County Recorder Bell his proof of labor.

Recently the Tonopah mining man obtained, through his attorney, M. A. Diskin, an order from Judge Somers restraining the present holders of the property from interfering with the performance of the work, and thereupon proceeded to do the labor. At a depth of ten feet he claims to have found a ledge in place from which he had an assay made showing that the rock held $3.20 values, mostly in gold, with a trace of silver.

The Ramsey Extension or Idol's Eye claim embraces all of the principal business section of Goldfield, running as far north as the old Casey hotel, and from the fact that Fox has yearly performed the assessment work and has made good in that respect for the year 1911, it is evident that he intends to contest for the surface rights in the heart of Goldfield.

Fox, located the ground in 1904, calling it the Ramsey Extension. Shortly afterwards Al Meyers and Tom Murphy, according to the Tonopah mining man, located over his ground, naming the claim the Idol's Eye. Fox brought suit before Judge Murphy, at that time the presiding judge in this district. The action was finally non-suited and Fox went to the supreme court with his case. The higher tribunal rendered that he had made a discovery and rendered its decision in his favor. However, since that time he has contented himself with performing the assessment work year in and year out, but has taken no further legal steps to acquire absolute title.

Now out of a hole five feet wide, fifteen long and ten deep he has taken rock running over $3, and rumor has it that he intends to again contest seriously for what he claims are his rights.

NOTED PLAY WAS WELL PORTRAYED AT THE NEVADA

"THE GREAT JOHN GANTON" APPRECIATED BY LARGE AUDIENCE.

The first offering of the Empire players, under the direction of Al H. Hallet, at the Nevada theater last night, stamped the company as one equal in ability to any stock company brought to Tonopah. The vehicle, "The Great John Ganton," is a noted play and well fitted to bring out ability or to betray weakness, and the test showed the strength and versatility of the players.

"The Great John Ganton" is a play that has many fellows on the modern stage. The local theatergoers have seen "The Lion and the Mouse," which contains as lively and spirited a bit of dialogue as the counter-part in "The Great John Ganton."

The notable feature of the company was the successful balancing of the members. No one shone to unreasonable proportions. The players acted their parts well and there "all the honor lies."

Of course personal mention must be made of the leading characters for the play is a play of leadership, of conquest and of human contention.

Mr. Charles King in the title role was admirable. The part is difficult because of the eccentricity necessary to portray in the delineation of the character of a captain of industry of the old school. His presentation was life-like and not over-exaggerated.

Miss Florence Bell, who as May Keating, the daughter of Jim Keating, of unenviable memory, acted with spirit and intelligence, and in addition proved to be a young woman of more than ordinary attractiveness. Her acting was sincere and competent and this might be said of the entire cast.

Miss Jane Aubrey as Mrs. Jack Wilton had one uncommon excellence in the possession of a full, well modulated and hearable voice. She acted with animation and conspicuous ability.

Mr. Norman Fuser as Ganton's secretary, played a conventional part well. Mr. William Brewer and Mr. Fred Knight as Ganton, Jr., and Delaney respectively were evenly matched and had the disadvantage of occupying the less prominent roles, although the former showed talent in the active scenes.

Tonight the company will present that thrilling drama, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," or "The Boss of the Bar-Z Ranch." The seats can be secured at the Miners' drug store.

MAY CHANGE SYSTEM.

It is rumored in Carson City that the incoming legislature plans to materially change the system of filing transcripts in appeal and motions for new trial. This is due to complaints made that the cost of appealing a case is so high that litigants are often deterred from carrying their cases further for lack of money.

BIG SALE ON AT DEPARTMENT STORE OF H. A. MCKIM

LARGE FORCE IN STORE TO CARE FOR TRADE DURING SALE.

H. A. McKim's, Tonopah's largest firm, has this week inaugurated the most gigantic public sale ever known in the state of Nevada. The extent to which the firm has gone into this event this year cannot fail to attract the attention of all bargain seekers within a radius of 100 miles of Tonopah.

The firm has enjoyed the distinction of being one of the largest bargain givers in this part of the state and if the advertising sent out this year is a forecast of sale prices unlimited opportunities are before the people to save money.

The stock has been consigned to the New York and St. Louis Consolidated Salvage company. No pains or expense have been spared to make it the biggest sale ever held in Tonopah, or in fact in this part of the state. Thousands of large bills, small bills, letters, placards, tags, etc., are being circulated without number.

The newspapers have contained full page ads of the big event. A force of five men with rigs have visited every home within the radius of 100 miles of Tonopah and ads have been placed in all the papers in the surrounding towns.

Mr. Brennan, the man in charge, has the advertising proposition down to perfection and the newspaper offices during the past week have been rushed to their utmost capacity.

H. A. McKim has a nice clean line of goods and the customers can rest assured of getting nothing but this season's goods.

The store opened Tuesday morning, January 10, at 9 o'clock, after being closed for two days during which time the stock has been rearranged and the prices reduced. Railroad fare is paid on a $30.00 purchase and judging from the number of people that applied for excursion rates on the railroad the sale promises to start out well.

The New York and St. Louis Consolidated Salvage Co., Adam Goldman, president and general manager, Century building, St. Louis, Mo., has placed the sale in charge of their able representative and manager, Mr. E. L. Brennan, who is looking for great results as a consequence of the efforts he is putting forth.

Mr. McKim has already engaged a corps of twenty clerks to wait on the people and when the store opened this morning it presented the appearance of a large trading store.

LITTLE TOTS MAKE BIG HIT AT THE BUTLER

JUVENILE PERFORMERS PROVE TO BE VERY CLEVER TEAM.

In spite of the bad weather a large crowd enjoyed a thoroughly good show at the Butler theater last night. The feature of the evening performance was the singing and dancing of La Petite Ruth and Master Herschel, without doubt the cleverest team that ever appeared at this popular place of amusement. These little artists will have an entire change of program tonight, appearing twice at each show. The following is the picture program: "Love's Awakening" (Esanay drama), "The Law and the Man" (Vitagraph drama), "Happy Jack, a Hero" (Biograph comedy), and "Turning the Tables" (Biograph comedy). First show at 6:50.

The latest dance that has been introduced into a ballroom is known as the "Boston Trot." Who would think that the residents of a literary community like Boston could give their formal approval of a name like that?

ALL SUBSCRIBERS TO THE BONANZA WHO ARE IN ARREARS ARE REQUESTED TO SETTLE AT ONCE. OUR REPRESENTATIVE WILL CALL. PLEASE PAY HIM PROMPTLY, OTHERWISE IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO PLACE SUCH ACCOUNTS IN THE HANDS OF A COLLECTOR.
